

Dear All,

I am pleased to be sending you the “finalised” version of the story of the Punjabi Chaplaincy today.

It is a wonderful story starting back in 1965 with a layman Peter Frank and reaching a new level with the appointment of Father George Waraich in 2014. I hope to have something similar on each Chaplaincy, Eparchy and Mission.

I am also attaching the Burning Bush Logo, the title I am giving the Vlog which began with my weekly Reflection/Homily (also attached for the 7th Week of Easter). I am planning with the help of friends to expand the Vlog to a 10 minute time of prayer and reflection launching Pentecost Sunday. It will begin with 3 minutes Coming into the Presence of God (Scripture, Song/Music and Pictures) then the Homily/Reflection, and ending with 1-2 minutes quiet private prayer. I hope people will find it helpful; it will be a permanent online outcome of the lockdown.

The Logo of course reminds us of Moses receiving his Mission from God in the miracle of the Burning Bush at Mount Sinai (Exodus 3/4). Pentecost seems to me a good time to launch it!

My prayers are with you for your mission in our new and ongoing time of adaptation and change.
