

Outline for Oscott College

Pastoral Programme

On Thursday 19 November 2020

Lessons from Ethnic Chaplaincies, Eparchies and Missions

A Special Blessing

Mgr Daniel McHugh, Co-ordinator of Ethnic Chaplaincies, Eparchies and Missions for the Archdiocese of Birmingham

Fr RonyKurian George Syro-Malabar Community

Fr Stan Nwanunobi CSSp, Nigerian Community

Mgr Daniel McHugh

Introduction:

- Personal Experience
- Co-ordinator – a new Ministry

A Special Blessing for the Church

- Different Ethnic Groups
- Variety of Cultures
- Riches of Liturgical Rites
- Support of Ethnic Priests

Fr Rony Kurian George from Kerala, India

- Personal Experience
- Parish Priest of Our Lady of the Angels and St Peter in Chaines, Stoke-on-Trent
- Pastor of Syro-Malabar Eparchy in Stoke-on-Trent and other areas:
- Masses; Catechesis; Pastoral Care of the Syro-Malabar Community

Fr Stan Nwanunobi, CSSp, Nigeria

- Personal Experience
- Parish Priest, Holy Cross, West Bromwich
- Chaplain to the Nigerian Community in the West Midlands
- Masses, Catechesis, Pastoral Care of the Nigerian Community