

THE ARCHDIOCESE of BIRMINGHAM

Ethnic Chaplaincies

Newsletter: Sunday 7th March 2021

Dear All,

I am pleased to forward two posters from Dr Subhi Zora done by his nephew Yousuf and niece Rita. They have been selected for display during the Holy Father's Apostolic Visit to Iraq 5-8th March. We are all praying that it will be a visit that is richly blessed.

You will know, if you are in the Archdiocese of Birmingham, that we have a major conference coming up shortly on the new Catechetical Directory. This is a Conference not to be missed, so I am sending you a Link to it. We can build on it in terms of the Catechesis and Evangelisation at the heart of our ministry in the Chaplaincies, Eparchies and Missions.

As usual I am sending you a copy of the text of my Reflection for the Third Week of Lent, which I hope will be a useful resource for your own preparations. Please note it will be on Our Lady of Good Counsel Ethnic Chaplaincies Website from tomorrow, Friday, as part of the Burning Bush VLOG. Also on the website is my next weekly Podcast focusing, this time, on Saints Cosmas and Damian, the Station Church for 11th March.

With prayers and all good wishes,

Mgr Daniel McHugh

Monsignor Daniel McHugh

Co-ordinator for Ethnic Chaplaincies in the Archdiocese
