Ethnic Chaplaincies

---

Newsletter: Sunday 5th September 2021

Dear All,

I am pleased to let you know that I have been able to finalise a date and venue for the Annual Intercultural Celebration. It will take place on Saturday 16th October at St Osburg's Church, Coventry, so linking to events marking the City Year of Culture. I am pleased the Apostles of Jesus Community will host us, and Bishop David Evans will be Celebrant. Please put the date in your diary, and I will be in touch to make further arrangements.

Also I am forwarding today the programme for the Day for Catechists on 25th September at St Ambrose Barlow, Hall Green in Birmingham. Catechists from the Chaplaincies, Eparchies and Missions are invited to join Catechists from the East Birmingham and Solihull Deanery for this day introducing the new Catechetical Directory. I think you will see it is an excellent programme, and ideal for your Catechists as you plan for the coming year.

Also attached is my Podcast on Ven. Cardinal Mindszenty for 5th September, the opening day of the International Eucharistic Congress in Hungary and my Reflection for the 23rd Sunday, which also highlights the Eucharistic Congress. I hope you will find them helpful.

All good wishes and prayers for you and your Community,

Mgr Daniel McHugh
