LEBANON: ACN aims to raise €1 million to help displaced people

ACN (Aid to the Church in Need) is rushing to the aid of the Church in Lebanon and hoping to raise at least €1 million (£830,000) to help those who have fled their homes amid the escalating conflict.

ACN has announced an emergency appeal to assist the Church as it strives to cope with the increasing crisis in Lebanon caused by the ongoing airstrikes and ground assault.

The fund-raising target announced by ACN follows steps taken by us to upscale emergency outreach amid reports that more than one million people have been displaced within the past month.

ACN UK's national director, Dr Caroline Hull said: "We must do all we can to support our heroic project partners who are providing material and spiritual support to the many people who have had to leave everything behind to find safety from a war that has engulfed their towns and villages."
